

Privacy Policy

1. Appropriate collection and use of personal information

We strongly recognize the importance of protecting personal information and will collect and use personal information appropriately within the scope necessary for our business activities.

2. Appropriate collection and use of personal information

We will not provide personal information to third parties except with the consent of the person concerned. However, the Company will not provide personal information to third parties except in the following cases

When required by law

When it is necessary for the protection of the life, body, or property of an individual and it is difficult to obtain the consent of the individual.

When conducting surveys and studies for the purpose of developing and improving our services or better travel products

When we deem it necessary to secure the rights of the person concerned or our company

When we entrust the handling of personal information to a subcontractor to whom we have imposed a duty of confidentiality regarding the maintenance and management of the system to the extent necessary for the performance of our business.

3. Prevention of unauthorized access to personal information, loss, destruction, falsification, and leakage of personal information

To prevent unauthorized access to personal information, loss, destruction, falsification, and leakage of personal information, we will store and store such information safely under strict control.

4. Compliance with Laws, Regulations, and Other Standards

All of our employees, including our directors, shall comply with the Personal Information Protection Law, the Travel Agency Law, and other laws and regulations governing the protection of personal information.

5. Education and Training

We will continuously provide education and training on the protection of personal information to ensure that all employees are fully aware of the importance of protecting personal information.

Date of enactment: June 9, 2021

plein, LLC (TABIKAGO)

Representative Partner: Tadayuki Shimadzu